WHEREAS we are honoring our fathers this coming Father's Day, Sunday, June 20th, and

WHEREAS the theme for this American Holiday is "Juvenile Intergity Starts in the Home", and

WHEREAS it is the fathers of our land who primarily have built this great democracy through their teachings and sturdy devotion to liberty and love of freedom, and

WHEREAS we look to the father in the home as the moulder of tomorrow's citizens, the builder of good family life and the foundation of our future and teacher of our young in the importance of good ethics, fair play, peace and brotherhood throughout the world,

THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, June 20, 1965 as and I call upon all the citizens of this state to observe it in worship and displaying the American Flag and otherwise commemorating the Father in the home so that every day in the year may have the blessings that flow from good fatherhood, good citizenship, and a strong family life.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of South Dakota to be affixed this 12th day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five.

Nils A. Boe
